DEDICATION

To you, Mrs. O'Connell, we dedicate this Lasso of 1960. With this dedication, we acknowledge your thirteenth year of teaching kindergarten at Clarion Public School.

A number of the seniors of 1960 started on the long road of education in your class. These seniors, in addition to many others who know you, will always remember your admirable ability as a teacher.

The Lasso Staff of 1960 is proud and pleased to dedicate this yearbook to you.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education is the governing body of the Clarion School District. Members of the School Board are elected by the people of the community. The School Board's secretary and treasurer are appointed. Members of the School Board are President Verne Lewellyn, Mr. Ray Bailey, Mr. Lloyd Volker, Mr. Don Bowman, Mrs. Edith Eaton, Miss Mary Ennis, secretary; and Mr. Bob Davison, treasurer. Superintendent C. J. Christiansen also works closely with the board. Meetings are held the first Monday night of each month and at any other time that the need arises.

Some of the main concerns of the School Board are the school budget, salaries of the school's employees, and the purchase of school equipment. This year much of their time has been spent on the problem of school reorganization.

A new school law, which is of direct concern to the student body, was passed by the School Board this year. This new law states that senior high students may bring outside dates to dances if the dates are registered and approved by the administration.

C. J. CHRISTIANSEN, SUPERINTENDENT

Clarion, Iowa

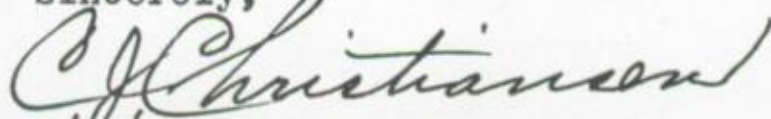

To The Class of 1960:

When one reaches his goal there is a definite feeling of satisfaction. No doubt you who are about to receive your diplomas have that feeling. However let me remind you the diploma will reflect only the effort and work you have put into it. This diploma and the degree of excellence it represents will be your passport for the future.

For many this will be the end of your formal education, for others just the beginning. What ever be the case may I wish for each of you the best in life and may you succeed in what ever you attempt. May the memories of your High School be pleasant and may your experience here lead to higher accomplishments.

Accept my hearty congratulations and remember that only those, whose ideals are high, reach the pinnacle of success.

Sincerely,

C. J. Christiansen

THE SENIOR CLASS

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Dave Didio, Treasurer; Kathy Evans, Secretary; Dan Stober, President; Lynn Mikelson, Vice-President.

The Class of 1960 started high school as Sophomores in the fall of 1957. Our Sophomore class officers were: David Didio, President; Pete Smith, Vice-President; Diana Davison, Secretary; and Gary Thomas, Treasurer. The highlight of our first year in high school was serving at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Choosing and receiving our class rings definitely labeled us as Juniors. We immediately began projects to raise money for the Prom, which was held on April 17, 1959. The theme of our prom was "April in Paris." We chose as class officers in our junior year David Didio, President; Diana Davison, Vice-President; Lana Stavnheim, Secretary; and Gary Thomas, Treasurer.

As Seniors we selected Dan Stober, President; Lynn Mikelson, Vice-President; Kathy Evans, Secretary, and David Didio, Treasurer. Looking ahead to graduation we chose our class flower, the red rose; our class song, NO MAN IS AN ISLAND; our class motto, "No Man is an Island; No Man Stands Alone"; and our class colors, red and silver.

Mr. Simpson, Mr. Orwick, and Mr. Brand were our class sponsors throughout our high school years.

Many of our class members have attained outstanding positions in different fields. Four of our classmates who actively participated on our high-ranking basketball team were Jim Anderson, Gary Meyer, John Phillips, and Dan Stober. Four boys in our class have been contestants at the state wrestling meet. They are: Steve Hill, Gene Keller, Sid Severson, and Gary Thomas. Our state champion track team was also composed of some of our classmates: Jim Anderson, Gary Meyer, Lynn Mikelson, Paul Hardy, and Dan Stober.

Gary Brandt, who has commendable records in the music field--both vocal and instrumental--is another one of our classmates who has gained an outstanding position for himself.

Members of the Class of '60 who were scholastically high-rated throughout high school are: Theron Bailey, Bob Bjelland, Gary Brandt, Diana Davison, David Didio, Diane Dougherty, Kathy Evans, Sally Filble, Jackie McCone, Loretta Peck, Pete Smith, and Lana Stavnheim.

Now we look forward to graduation with feelings of anticipation, anxiety, sadness, happiness and hopefulness. We'll separate and go to our own new worlds, but all the memories of our old world of high school will always be with us.

Paul -

I don't know if I can think of enough to fill a whole page but I will try so you will have to also.

I want you to know that I will never forget all the fun we have had together. We have really kept the school guessing when we go home on the week-end whether we will come back Monday broke-up, just going together or going steady haven't we. We should have kept track of all the times we broke up and I bet we would have a ^{world's} record. (Except for Jack & Kay)

Remember all the fun we had with Bonnalee when she was here and when she left all the posing for pictures you did.

Don't forget the pizza we make with Dixie & Bill about every week! HA! HA! And all the fun we've had with Jim & Karen when it was my turn!

I have gotten to know you real well in the past two ^{years} and I want you to know that whatever happens between us, I will always think you are a wonderful boy (even thought you are so stubborn) and I will never forget you or all the things we have done together. The best of luck to you in whatever you may do.

The Student Council was in charge of all Homecoming activities. They were also in charge of Parents' Night, which was held during the football season. Decorating the halls and study hall for Christmas was another big project of the Student Council.

The officers of the senior high student council are Diana Davison, president; Pete Smith, vice president; and Kathy Hagie, secretary-treasurer.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The stage was also decorated. In the background, strips of crepe paper were twisted at different angles and were fastened to a supporting structure. Large silhouettes danced on this background. Crossed flags hung above the stage decorations.

1959 Homecoming Queen

Diana Davison reigned as queen over Homecoming 1959. The queen's attendants were Darlene Espenhover, junior, and Darlene Mikelson, sophomore. The queen and her attendants were announced at the pep meeting on the Friday preceding the Homecoming week. During the busy and important week, mums were sold and the classes and organizations worked hard on floats.

The cheerleaders created a great deal of pep and enthusiasm on Thursday evening at the annual Snake Dance that preceded a public pep rally held in the stadium. At this rally Bob Randolph, former CHS football player, spoke as an alumnus. Coach Bergstrom gave an arousing pep talk. The co-captains, Dan Stober and Gary Meyer, and Queen Diana also gave short speeches. The pep rally was closed with the burning of large letters of CHS.

The parade was held Friday afternoon at 3:00, despite the rain. The parade consisted of the Junior and Senior Bands, the class and organization floats, and the royalty. Winners were: class division--juniors, first; freshmen, second; organizations---FHA, first; FFA, second.

Preceding the game, the queen and her attendants were presented and introduced to the football crowd. They were escorted by Gary Thomas, Larry Arthur, and Tom Wilson. The Cowboys, with the Homecoming spirit, defeated the Hampton Bulldogs 24-6.

The queen's coronation took place during the dance following the game. She was crowned by the C-Club president, Dan Stober. There was a good attendance at the dance. Music was furnished by the Ronnie-Lee Combo.

Homecoming 1959 was a memorable event in Clarion High due to the co-operation and spirit of all.

Pete Smith, senior; was this year's editor-in-chief. Terry Page, junior; was the assistant editor and circulation manager. The production editor was Jim Erickson, junior. The remainder of the staff was composed of columnists, artists, mimeograph and stencil artists, typists, and reporters. Mr. Simpson is the sponsor of the newspaper.

In October, the editors and the sponsor attended the annual Iowa High School Press Association Journalism Convention, held at Drake University in Des Moines. At Christmas time, a 36-page issue containing several pages of color work was published. This issue was the largest ever published by students of C.H.S. The I.H.S.P.A. rated the RANCH HOUSE JOURNAL superior in these six categories: news coverage, news writing, make-up, headlines, features, and sports writing.

The Drama Club is made up of high school students who have participated in some way in speech activities. Although no meetings are held and no officers are elected, this group has many activities.

Several trips were taken this year by participants in speech events. The Mohawk Speech Festival was the first speech event which we participated in. Eleven Clarion students attended it and received criticism on their declamations.

The contest play cast and directors traveled to Clear Lake on January 23 for a one-act play festival. After performing they were given pointers by a play critic.

The next speech event attended was the sectional which was held in Rowan on January 27. Fifteen students from Clarion went with speeches and eight of them received I ratings. The one-act play also received a I. All contestants with I ratings moved on to the district contest.

On February 19 and 20 the District Speech Contest was held in Clarion. 639 contestants from 77 towns attended. Clarion students receiving I's at the district contest were Kay Bell, humorous declamation; Susan Smith, humorous declamation; Carol Streit, oratorical declamation; Christie Collins, interpretive reading, poetry; Frank Sharp, radio speaking; and Don Lewellyn, original oratory. These people attended the State Speech Contest at Hartley.

At the head of the speech department is Mr. Jagers who teaches freshman and sophomore English and speech.

CAST: John Phillips, Kathy Hagie, and Kathy Evans
Education Week One-act Play--"When the Sun Rises"

This play which was cast from the speech class showed the subconscious feelings of two victims of an auto crash. The victims returned to life from the very shadow of death after much tenseness and drama.

One-Act Contest Play--"The Rector"

This play tells of the trials of a minister in a small country church. The minister thinks it's advisable for him to marry, but first he consults the clearest thinker of his congregation. This consultant loves him but gives him up when she realizes that he loves another girl. The activity of the play centers around a church carpet committee meeting.

CAST: Susan Smith, Theron Bailey, Joanne Fisher, Jackie McCone, Marcia Saylor, and Kay Bell. DIRECTORS: Mr. Jaggars, Gary Brandt, and Gail Ament.

Last summer six Clarion F.B.L.A. members attended the National F.B.L.A. Convention in Washington, D. C. Mr. Simpson also attended this convention as a sponsor of the Iowa group.

 English, study hall, and every other place we go together. Remember especially fighting over the couch at your house and watching television with Darlene and Kay.
 Have fun with Darlene and I know you two are finally going to make it. See you around —

Jack
